Rothschild Grants for Modern Hebrew Language Studies

Rothschild Grants of up to £1,000 are available when registering for one of the following programs: Winter Ulpan, Jerusalem Ulpan, Summer Ulpan or Scopus Ulpan, for current students fulfilling the following criteria:

1. The candidate is originally from Europe.
2. The candidate has a strong academic record within a European academic institution.
3. The candidate must have completed their first degree, preferably a master’s degree as well.
4. The candidate shows evidence that they will use their improved language skills to further their academic career.
5. The candidate has demonstrated that they aim to further the field of Jewish studies within their country, or within Europe as a whole.
6. The referee is supportive of the applicant and highlights the contribution that the language course will make to his/her career.

These grants are intended to fund only tuition and student housing costs.

For detailed information on the Hebrew language courses offered at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem, Division of Hebrew Language Instruction, please check:

http://overseas.huji.ac.il/hebprograms

After applying online for the desired Hebrew program at:

http://overseas.huji.ac.il/applynow

Candidates should submit the scholarship forms (see separate forms) to the email address listed below, at least two months before the course commences, indicating the selected program.

Note that candidates who are awarded a Rothschild Grant will receive notification and the funds will be transferred directly to the Hebrew University.
