

DIVISION OF UNDERGRADUATE STUDIES

Application for Louis Levine Scholarship

Louis Levine was Professor of Biology at City College of New York for most of his career, and received his PhD at Columbia, where he was a student of the geneticist Th. Dobzhansky. He served as a longtime member of the Rothberg International School committee and we are pleased to honor him in this way.

The Louis Levine Scholarship will be awarded to an outstanding student with a keen desire to advance scientific knowledge in our ever-changing world, and to further their science education while studying at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem.

The following materials must be received by the Office of Academic Affairs by the deadline date in order to process your scholarship application:

- ✓ Official transcripts of all undergraduate work completed to date
- ✓ Letter from the Registrar of each institution which you have attended stating the average GPA of your class / graduating year and your rank (top 5%, 10%, etc). If your school does not calculate this information, please have the registrar submit a letter to that effect.
- ✓ Two academic letters of recommendation – you may use the recommendations submitted as part of your program application, or you may choose to have other recommendations substitute for those already on file.
- ✓ Resume including a list of awards and honors received and publications to date
- ✓ Scholarship essay: Your statement of purpose will aid the scholarship selection committee in evaluating your application for a merit scholarship. In a statement of no more than two typed pages, please discuss your past work and preparation related to a field of science; and how your period of study at the Hebrew University will help you meet your academic goals and/or career objectives; and how you will apply your study abroad experience to your academic work upon your return to your home institution. Please be sure to discuss achievements within your field, citing specific accomplishments, awards, recognition and leadership experience. The scholarship essay replaces the personal statement on the undergraduate application for admission.

Please list the name and institution of each person who will be sending a recommendation on your behalf:
