APPLY NOW: THE JDC-HEBREW UNIVERSITY FELLOWSHIP IN SERVICE

The JDC-Hebrew University Fellowship in Service is an exclusive opportunity for students at the Rothberg International School to engage in meaningful service work with JDC, the world’s largest Jewish humanitarian aid organization.

As the largest developer of social programs in the country, JDC-Israel touches the lives of 1 in 4 Israelis. Fellows work with JDC staff and field experts to contribute to JDC-Israel’s innovative interventions improving the lives of those most in need.

The Fellowship runs through the fall semester (September 3, 2017 - January 1, 2018) with the ability to extend for the full academic year.

Activities include:
- A series of in-depth orientation sessions
- Four hours of volunteer work weekly
- Educational development sessions

PLEASE NOTE: knowledge of basic Hebrew is required for participation.

Visit www2.jdc.org/il for more information about JDC in Israel

Email ShacharB@jdc.org with any questions

CLICK HERE TO APPLY BY AUGUST 18TH, 2017

PLACEMENTS INCLUDE:

Susan’s House: A warm, welcoming place for at-risk teens. Volunteers will mentor teens and help them enhance English language skills. LEARN MORE

The JDC Institute for Leadership and Governance: Focusing on bringing top leaders together to achieve wide, measurable, and sustainable social impact in Israel. Volunteers will assist with a broad range of administrative tasks including data management and working with the steering committee. LEARN MORE

Israel Unlimited: Dedicated to advancing the status of people with disabilities in Israel, through developing cutting-edge services to improve quality of life, inclusion in the community and to break down stigmas toward people with disabilities. LEARN MORE

Global Response, Innovative Development (GRID): Providing a Jewish response to human suffering and disaster relief across the globe. Volunteers will develop materials highlighting GRID’s global impact and projects related to the photo database.

Center for International Migration and Integration (CIMI): CIMI is an independent non-profit organization dedicated to assisting Israel in meeting its migration challenges. Volunteers will work on projects such as updating social media channels and assisting with grant writing, as well as working with children in the program. LEARN MORE