THE HEBREW UNIVERSITY OF JERUSALEM
Rothberg International School
Summer Semester 2017
Arabic Immersion Program
Intermediate Level

Description:
This program is intended as an introduction to Modern Standard Arabic (henceforth MSA), the formal language employed in books, newspapers, scripted news broadcasts and formal speeches across the Arab world. Students will also learn the foundations of Colloquial Arabic (henceforth CA), the spoken language used at home and in daily life. As the specifics of this language vary from one location to another, emphasis will be placed on the Urban Palestinian dialect of Jerusalem, which is one of the Levantine dialects.

The classes and activities will facilitate the acquisition of a basic proficiency in the language and the basic linguistic skills, analytical abilities and cultural knowledge required to read, write and speak Arabic at a basic level.

The program is based on the principle of immersion, the comprehensive and active use of the language of study, both inside and outside the classroom. Arabic will therefore be taught in Arabic, though certain subjects may be taught in English at the beginning of the program, with a gradual move to Arabic as the program progresses. Participants will reside with Arabic speakers in the Student Village and interact with the Arabic speaking community in various field trips and special activities.
