Student Support

Our Graduate Community Coordinators (madrichim) are a team of Israeli students here to help you get the most out of your time in Israel. They organize activities throughout the year, including:

- Social activities building a sense of community
- Trips exploring Jerusalem and Israel
- Cultural events embracing Israel’s diversity

Our Students

You’ll benefit from incredible diversity – giving you a learning experience and network that is truly global. Our graduate students come from more than 40 countries across 6 continents, and hold degrees from institutions such as Columbia, Heidelberg, Lund, Sciences Po, Sun Yat-sen, Geneva, Oxford, and Yale.

Career Paths

Our students have gone on to careers in business, government, and high-tech, and work as academics, diplomats, policy analysts, managers in nonprofits and NGOs, entrepreneurs, and religious and community leaders.

Enjoy Life at HebrewU

Jerusalem is a meeting point for East and West, ancient and modern, religious and secular. You can experience this unique blend of cultures by exploring archaeological and religious sites; visiting ethnic neighborhoods; frequenting local museums, eateries, and festivals; and participating in events sponsored by Jerusalem’s emerging high-tech and social business sector.
