Our Modern Hebrew Programs

We offer several options for intensive summer and winter ulpanim, ranging from three to seven weeks in length and designed to provide a solid foundation for future study. Our world-class courses are also available every autumn and spring semester at the graduate, undergraduate, and preparatory levels. Your studies combine daily instruction with field trips and cultural activities to give you an experience that’s wide-ranging, thought-provoking, and fun.

Our Faculty

Our instructors are native speakers of Hebrew and experts in the field. Their teaching methods are designed to help you truly master reading, writing, speaking, and listening.

Student Support

You’ll be treated as an individual, with student services tailored to meet your needs. Our Office of Student Life will be here to help every day – and also organizes activities and events, including:
- Weekend hikes through beautiful Israel terrain
- A variety of tours, from exploring the Old City to visiting the Dead Sea
- Special Shabbat dinners to open each semester

Jerusalem’s people, museums, history, and holy sites are something I will never forget. It was certainly a fantastic experience to study here.”

Guilherme Corrêa, Undergraduate Study Abroad (2016)

Living in Jerusalem

We’re located in one of the world’s most historic, exciting, and diverse cities – giving you an opportunity to explore ancient history and new cultures. As the capital of the ‘Start-Up Nation,’ Jerusalem is also home to Israel’s booming high-tech industry. You’ll find lots of trendy shops, festivals, and restaurants here – including a range of dining options for everyone.

A Route to Success

Our Hebrew Language Programs can help you meet the goals you set for your time in Israel – and enhance your further studies and career options. HebrewU’s experienced instruction and individualized support, coupled with our ideal location, will help set you up for a successful and rewarding study abroad experience.
