Hebrew University’s Rothberg International School (RIS) offers students a vast range of summer courses – and can help you design faculty-led and customized programs tailored to your needs. Our outstanding faculty and guest lecturers, enriching trips, modern infrastructure, and exceptional support create an ideal setting for your program.
BROAD EXPERTISE
We offer and host programs in a wide variety of fields. Some of our strongest areas include:
- Israel and Middle East Studies
- Language Studies
- Religious Studies
- Social and Political Sciences
- Business and Legal Studies
- STEM

EXCEPTIONAL SUPPORT
We can help with anything you need – from coordinating transportation and guided tours to arranging networking opportunities. We also offer smart classrooms, modern lecture halls, and on-campus housing.

INNOVATIVE, CUSTOMIZED PROGRAMS
We partner with top institutions to design faculty-led and customized programs. Examples include:
- Civil Society Promoting Coexistence in Israel focuses (via an intensive workshop) on NGO activities to create dialogue and promote coexistence in Israel.
- InnovNation explores the future of disruptive technology through meetings and site visits with Israel’s top start-ups.
- Transboundary Water Cooperation investigates (on-site) the technological and institutional challenges in resolving water conflicts.
