Financial Regulations

A registered student at the Rothberg International School of the Hebrew University of Jerusalem (referred to hereinafter as the RIS) is one who has:

- a. Received an official letter of acceptance issued by either the RIS or the Office of Academic Affairs of the RIS in New York.
- b. Completed financial registration in accordance with the regulations and procedures described in this guide including the submission of the signed and completed financial commitment and health insurance forms.
- c. Submitted a program of studies to the appropriate division or department secretariat, in accordance with the regulations in effect in that division/department.

An external student is one who is enrolled only in a summer course, a special academic program or an Ulpan.

A part-time student is one who is taking individual courses in the Divisions of Undergraduate Studies or Graduate Studies, the Preparatory Program, or the Division of Hebrew Language Instruction.

An Israeli Citizen is defined as one who possesses an Israeli Identity Card (Teudat Zehut).

Financial Registration

Students are required to fulfill all of their financial obligations and submit all the necessary forms by the program's payment deadline.

Students who either do not complete all of their financial obligations or do not submit all of the necessary forms before their program's financial registration final payment date may be subject to a US $150 late payment fine. Upon arrival for financial registration, they may be subject to a long wait to complete their financial commitment form, their application for health insurance, and to make any outstanding payments. Only then will they receive housing referrals and student identification cards.

External students pay tuition in full for one program at a time. Those who are registered for consecutive programs pay tuition for the second program once the first program has begun.

Financial registration in itself does not constitute proof of academic eligibility to begin studies.

Payments made in currencies other than those listed herein will be calculated according to the relevant exchange rate on the date the Hebrew University receives the payment. The RIS reserves the right to change fees at any time.

The RIS may deny University services, such as class attendance, issuance of transcripts, housing, health insurance, library privileges and computer accounts, to students who have not met their financial obligations to the Hebrew University.

Methods of Payment:

Students from the United States may pay all fees to the Office of Academic Affairs in NY. Students are advised to consult with them regarding payment procedures.

Payments may be made by:

- Credit Card: Payments in US Dollars (US$) or New Israeli Shekels (NIS) may be made with a VISA, MasterCard, Isracard or American Express. A non-refundable service fee (2.4% of the charge amount) will be added to the credit card amount when making credit card payments.

To access the credit card payment page, please enter your Hebrew University student number or application file number, and your 5-digit code. You will receive an email confirming payment. Please bring this receipt with you to financial registration.

- Bank Transfers of the fees may be made to:

Bank Name:	Bank Discount (#11)
Branch:	Beit Hakerem branch (#069)
Bank Address:	29 Beit Hakerem Street, Jerusalem
Account number:	106279
Name Beneficiary:	The Hebrew University of Jerusalem

Swift/BIC Code: IDB LILITXXX :

IBAN ($): IL280110690000006197770

IBAN (£): IL930110690000020197774

IBAN (€): IL920110690000010197771

IBAN (NIS): IL660110690000002197776

The transfer should specify The Hebrew University and include the student's name and student number. A copy of this transaction must be brought to financial registration in Jerusalem. Please note that in cases where the RIS receives a reduced amount due to bank fees the student will be charged the difference.

Withdrawal and Check-out Procedures

Withdrawal Procedure

Students wishing to withdraw from studies at the RIS must:

- Submit written notification to both their academic department and the RIS Finance Office (Boyar 501/502) and follow the Checkout Procedure below.
- Return their Student Card and Health Insurance Card (if applicable).

Failure to attend classes does not constitute formal withdrawal but may result in a failing grade and a refund will not be issued.

Students who withdraw completely from the Hebrew University after receiving financial aid, FAFSA loan, or a MASA grant may be required to return all or part of the aid/loan/grant awarded.

Checkout Procedure

All Students:

Submission of Library Clearance

Students must bring their student card to the circulation desk in the Rothberg International School Library (on the first floor of the Boyar Building) to obtain a library clearance. Note that clearances are required even if the student has never used the library facilities.

Vacating Student Housing

All students must vacate housing in the Scopus Student Village by 3:00 p.m. upon withdrawal or by the date stated in the check-out table at the end of each program chapter. Please check the supervisor's office hours at other housing complexes (see locations below).

Students must have their rooms inspected, return their keys, and make sure they receive an official clearance from their housing supervisor.

Refunds:

Please note:

- Refunds may take up to 21 business days to process.
- A refund will only be issued to students who complete and submit the Withdrawal Form to the relevant office in writing notifying them that they are withdrawing from a course/program or that they are vacating student housing.
- Refunds may be issued in a check in Israeli currency (NIS) according to the rate of exchange or may also be directly deposited into a bank account, either local or abroad, if banking details are provided. Please note: Students requesting a refund in any other currency will be charged a 0.7% bank fee.

University Housing

- The University makes every effort to provide housing to all students who make reservations on time. To guarantee university housing, you must reserve a room by the application deadline of your program and complete all your financial obligations by the payment deadline. Late applications will be reviewed on a “first come, first served” basis, if space is available.
- If rooms are unavailable in the Scopus Student Village, students may be housed in other university housing facilities. The RIS administration reserves all rights to make final housing decisions.
- Students who are Shomrei Shabbat or kosher may request to live with others who are Shabbat observant or kosher.
- Kitchen facilities are available for preparing light meals and snacks.
- Students must supply their own dinnerware and cooking utensils, as well as sheets, pillowcases, and blankets – all of which may be purchased locally. There is no meal plan, but reasonably priced kosher meals and snacks can be purchased on campus. There is also a supermarket nearby.
- Part-time/Exchange/External students are allocated a room on a “first come, first served” basis, if space is available. There is no guarantee that all students who apply will receive accommodations.
- Non-Israeli students who did not request housing as part of their application procedure and subsequently wish to reserve housing must complete the housing reservation form found at: <https://overseas.huji.ac.il/student-life/university-housing/on-campus-housing-reservations/>
- Students who are Israeli citizens must apply directly to Hebrew University Housing Office to reserve housing. More information may be found here.

Housing Request

- All international students may request housing on the housing request form in your admissions application.
- To request housing after submitting your admissions application please click on the department in which you are studying here.

Dorm Down Payment

- Students are required to pay a housing down payment. The amount is determined by which department you are studying in as follow:
 - Summer courses- $250.
 - Ulpan, Programs shorter than a semester - $400.
 - Semester or Year program - $750.
- The dorm down payment is due no later than two weeks following the reception of a housing confirmation from RIS housing coordinator. Failure to pay the down payment by the due date will result in the removal of the dorm reservation.

Housing Cancellation

- Dorm cancellations made more than two months prior to the start of the program will receive a full refund.
- The housing down payment will not be refunded to students who cancel their dorm reservations less than two months prior to the start of their program.
- Students who register for housing less than two months prior to the start of their program will not receive a refund on their housing down payment.
- Students who pay the housing fee less than one month before the beginning of the program and decide to cancel will be charged for the entire down payment.

All financial obligations must be paid before the dorm check in date.

The Scopus Student Village housing office is open Sunday–Thursday, 8:00 a.m.–3:00 p.m. The housing offices in the other student housing complexes are open Sunday–Thursday, 8:00 a.m.–2:00 p.m. Students who must complete financial registration must arrive at the Boyar Building by 2:00 p.m. if they wish to receive a room on that day. Students arriving after the office is closed should find alternative overnight accommodations.

Housing check-out procedure: Upon departure, students are responsible for completing the check-out procedure by leaving the room clean, filling out the checkout form provided by the dorm reception and returning their keys.

Note that additional charges may be levied if:

- The student's utilities bills are higher than average.
- Excessive clean-up is necessary and/or there are damages beyond normal wear and tear. Please refer to the Damage Cost list received upon entering University housing.
- The student did not return the key and did not follow required check-out procedures.

Computer Services

State-of-the-art computer stations, including communication ports for connecting personal laptops, and Wi-Fi hotspots on campus provide access to e-mail, the Internet and Microsoft Office software.

All students automatically receive a computer access code with their acceptance letter. This code allows the student to open a remote access account and to access course materials, e-reserve and databases on the library website, as well as personal information such as financial statements, grades, course schedules, and the like on the RIS website.

Health Insurance

Students who are not Israeli citizens must take out health insurance throughout the duration of their studies, including during vacation and inter-semester breaks. There is absolutely no exception.

RIS students must register for this coverage through the Harel Insurance Company (Yedidim policy), even if you are already have separate insurance.

Information about the fees appear in this Financial Guide according to each academic program.

Students who are Israeli citizens or new immigrants (olim) are personally responsible for joining an Israeli health fund (kupat holim) to ensure their access to medical care.

Registration Procedure

1. Health Insurance Application Form: Students must complete the insurance form found on the RIS website. Those who answered "yes" to any of the questions on the form may be asked to submit to the RIS a recent, up-to-date letter from their attending physician noting the relevant dates and the current status of their medical condition. The decision regarding approval will be sent to the RIS and to the student.
2. Any previous or current medical condition may affect the insurance coverage limitations.
3. Each case is considered individually on the basis of age, insurance period and severity of the condition.

Please be aware that if the insurance agency discovers that information submitted about prior/chronic conditions is incomplete all liability may be rescinded.

Students who complete all of their financial obligations by the deadline and are approved for insurance, will be able to view their health insurance policy number in their student personal account after the beginning of the academic program.

Scholarships and Financial Aid

A limited number of need-based and/or merit scholarships are available to RIS students from the Office of Academic Affairs in the United States and the Friends of the Hebrew University offices in France, Australia, and the United Kingdom (see page 43). Scholarship requests for students from Canada should be directed to Esther Schlesinger: esthers@cfhu.org. Candidates should contact the office in their home country for information and application forms.

Please note: Students who withdraw completely from the Hebrew University after receiving financial aid may be required to return all or part of the aid awarded.

Graduate RIS Merit Scholarships

A limited number of scholarships are offered to highly qualified candidates from universities worldwide who wish to study in the Rothberg International School. U.S. candidates must apply to the Office of Academic Affairs in New York. Candidates from all other countries must apply to the RIS Division of Graduate Studies in Israel. The application deadline for the 2026/27 academic year is April 15, 2026.

RIS Merit Scholarships will be awarded for a sum equivalent to the cost of full tuition for the M.A. program. To be considered, applicants must be a candidate for an M.A. Program and must have completed their undergraduate degree with a minimum GPA of 3.8 or the equivalent. Those selected will be eligible for a fellowship for the duration of their program, conditional upon maintenance of academic performance. Candidates for any other graduate program are not eligible to apply for the Graduate Merit Fellowship. Applications are available upon request from the above offices or may be downloaded from this link.

Rothberg Family Fund Scholarships

International students enrolled in the RIS Division of Graduate Studies from countries other than the United States and Canada may be eligible for Rothberg Family Fund Scholarships, which are awarded by the Hebrew University. Eligibility is determined by academic achievement and financial need.

The application deadline for the 2026-27 academic year is April 15, 2026. Applications should be sent to the RIS Division of Graduate Studies in Israel (see page 42 for address). Applications are available from this office or may be found on our website.

Thanks to Scandinavia Scholarships

Thanks To Scandinavia awards two full-time Benjamin Sperling Scholarships for study at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem to students from Denmark, Finland, Norway or Sweden. The application deadline for the 2026-27 academic year is April 1, 2026. For further information check out the Thanks to Scandinavia webpage.

Government of Israel Scholarships to Foreign Students

The Government of Israel is pleased to offer to foreign students scholarships for Summer language courses (Ulpan) or one academic year or research studies as agreed in the Cultural Agreements between Israel and the following countries:

Austria, Belarus, Bulgaria, Canada (Quebec Province), China, Colombia, Croatia, Cyprus, Czech Republic, Estonia, Georgia, Greece, Hungary, Italy, Korea, Lithuania, Latvia, Mexico, Moldova, Macedonia, Poland, Portugal, Romania, Republic of Serbia, Slovak Republic, Slovenia, Spain, and Turkey

The following countries have a special scholarship arrangement:

Belgium, Denmark, Germany, India, Great Britain, Finland, France, Luxembourg, Japan, Norway, the Netherlands, Peru, Switzerland, and Russia.

Basic Requirements:

- The applicant should hold a B.A. or B.Sc. degree (or higher) and have a good record of academic achievement.
- The applicant should be a citizen of the country where he/she applies for the scholarship and be under the age of 35 (at the beginning of the academic year).
- Proof of English or Hebrew language proficiency.
- The applicant should meet the academic requirements of the Hebrew University. A scholarship will be granted only after the candidate is accepted to the program.

For further information, check the website of the Israel Ministry of Foreign Affairs or e-mail: scholarship@mfa.gov.il.

The Israel Student Authority

The Israel Government Student Authority awards tuition scholarships to eligible new immigrants (olim) who are enrolled in the Preparatory Program–Mechina or an RIS M.A. degree program. In Jerusalem, the Student Authority is located at 15 Hillel St., Tel: 02-6214555.

Please note: Student Authority grants for students studying in one of the RIS M.A. degree programs are deposited directly into the students' bank accounts. Therefore, such students are responsible for paying their entire tuition fee.

For further information, contact the student shaliach (representative) at the nearest Jewish Agency office or Israel Aliyah Center or check the Israel Student Authority multi-language website. In North America, contact Nefesh B'Nefesh.

Ministry of Defense/Ministry of Education

Preparatory Program–Mechina students who served in the Israeli Defense Forces or completed Sherut Leumi may be eligible for scholarships to cover their tuition.

Israeli citizens on a low socioeconomic level may be eligible for scholarships from the Ministry of Education.

For further information, contact the Preparatory Program–Mechina (see page 43 for address) or visit the website.

Division of Hebrew Language Instruction

The fees listed below only apply to external students studying on a Summer/ semester/ year Hebrew program. Students who continue their studies in one of our other semester/ year programs should consult the Hebrew fees listed under their specific academic program.

Housing Refund

Students who have accepted a room key and/or have moved personal possessions into a room and then wish to vacate University housing must write an e-mail to RIS Housing coordinator at rishousing@savion.huji.ac.il.

Students who withdraw from the program and vacate university housing within the first three days of classes are issued a refund minus down payment amount, provided they present official clearance from the Housing Office confirming their departure.

Refunds are processed with a deduction for the days the student has already occupied the room at a rate of $30 per day. Students who do not withdraw from the program or who vacate their rooms after the first three days of classes are not issued refunds.

Semester/year students who cancel their housing reservation or vacate their room by October 06th 2026, will be charged $750.

Students who vacate the University housing between October 07th 2026, and the end of the autumn semester (January 31, 2027) are charged for the entire month in which they vacate their rooms plus one additional month of rent.

After the end of the autumn semester, no refund is available for the balance of the academic year.

Once winter/spring semester RIS students occupy a room, no housing fee refunds are issued.
